

QUEENSLAND SALOON CAR ASSOCIATION INC.

SECTION 1
CODE OF ETHICS

06/2002

1. We should aim to foster and promote speedway sedan racing.
2. All officials, drivers and crews will present an image, as favourable as possible, by behaviour dress and actions to the general public.
3. All officials, drivers and crews are not to argue openly or to speak to each other in an aggravated state. Discussion on an incident may take place after all parties have been through a cooling off period.
4. All officials, drivers and crews are to speak to each other and the public in a civil manner. Bad language will not be tolerated.
5. All officials, drivers and crews agree to abide by the regulations and specifications of the Australian Saloon Car Federation Inc and the Queensland Saloon Car Association Inc. Know the Racing Rule book and Specification book well, and compete willingly within their confines.
6. Subject to the above, all officials, drivers and crews accept the right of the Australian Saloon Car Federation Inc and the Queensland Saloon Car Association Inc to lay down penalties for misconduct.
7. Deliberate rule infringements or deliberate provocation of other competitors/officials or abuse of equipment will not be accepted.
8. Know well that there are avenues of arbitration available for all parties.
9. In the interest of safety and presentation, all persons in the pit area are to dress in clean tidy and acceptable clothing.
10. All officials are to wear correct clean and tidy clothing with identifying badges.
11. All signage of a suggestive nature will not be allowed on racecars or team uniforms.
12. Co-operate with track promotion, to ensure that the paying public, gains value for money spent. Be readily available for any promotion needed by the track promotion.
Remember That You Are Your Sponsors Representative – Wherever You May Be.